Dear Mr. Hannon:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director Casey to address the Marshall Group in either October or November.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to tentative travel plans and a full schedule of official duties, he will be unable to join you in October or November.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Casey:

It has been some time since we were last in touch although I have called [redacted] from time to time re your schedule and matchup with ours. Not too encouraging. However, it's time to try again.

STAT

If you could select a reasonably safe date for either October or November, I believe there would be no trouble in scheduling ours to accommodate you. I'm sure that an Intelligence update would help us in service and public policy areas where we try to be useful. Navy Sec. Jack Lehman is meeting with us again this month and we're skipping August, with a meeting in Annapolis scheduled for September. I may be briefly at 7th Army HQ in either Oct or Nov. but can easily alter that if I might hear from you before Sept. 1.

We have had a few roster additions since you were last with us and also lost a few good men to Old Chapel ceremonies at Ft. Myer. Admiral Johnson has succeeded Melvin Laird as our Honorary Chairman, and Gen. Richard Groves, former Chief of Staff to Gen. Blanchard, has joined us as well. We meet now at ROA, 1 Constitution Ave. N.E., inasmuch as our old conference room at 1100 - 17th, where you joined us, was vacated by MOWW, having moved to Alexandria.

I am looking forward to the '84 campaign and wish you were at the helm again.

Sincerely,

Stuart L. Hannon

Mr. William J. Casey,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Dear Mr. Casey:

In checking your schedule with [ ] early this month it seemed possible that you might be able to join our Group again in January or February. Our next will be on January 17, following a Friday meeting several of us will be having with some of [ ] people. If that date is out for you, perhaps a date might be suggested by you for February or March.

STAT

Recent meetings of the Group have been concerned with the constrictions of our overall foreign policy, some self-imposed and too many politically consenting, that make improvements in our Defense and Intelligence communities more difficult than they should be. We feel that we should strive for a more sovereign U.S. policy and detach ourselves from multiple commitments that help others but not necessarily ourselves within our global needs for politico-economic cooperation. I recall one of C.B. Marshall's comments years ago to the effect that the more we are permanently involved in so many quarters we no longer have the options to alter situations dramatically by a strong U.S. stance at some crucial point.

What with Andropov on the scene, with intensified Soviet action towards European public opinion, and with Poland, Afghanistan and the Papal-Bulgarian affair in the background, we feel the U.S. has possibilities to explore rather than awaiting more Soviet initiatives. Your views will be welcome.

Sincerely,

Stuart L. Hannon
